

HOT Webquests

Kay Rewerts, Presenter

krewerts@mchsi.com

WebQuests are inquiry-oriented, Internet-research projects that require students to actively search, select, analyze and synthesize the information they encounter (HOT - Higher Order Thinking). This popular concept continues to grow and improve.

WebQuest Homepage

<http://webquest.org/index.php>

Some Thoughts About WebQuests

http://webquest.sdsu.edu/about_webquests.html

Useful WebQuest Resources

<http://webquest.org/index-resources.php>

Process Checklist

<http://webquest.sdsu.edu/processchecker.html>

Taxonomy of Tasks

<http://webquest.sdsu.edu/taskonomy.html>

Adapting and Enhancing WebQuests

<http://webquest.sdsu.edu/adapting/index.html>

Searching WebQuests

<http://webquest.org/search/index.php>

Google: Advanced Search

<http://www.google.com/>

QuestGarden ($20 for 2 years)

<http://questgarden.com/>

Create Your Own WebQuest

<http://www.kn.pacbell.com/wired/fil/>

WebQuest Resources on Conference Homepage

<http://twi.classroom.com/workshops/camp/hotlists/general/webquests.htm>